Airport needed, should construct it now—Walker

A strong stand favoring immediate action to establish a major new regional airport was taken Friday by Illinois Governor Daniel Walker.

Citing the proposal to create a major metropolitan airport because Lambert Airport is hemmed in and cannot achieve much expansion, the governor stressed advantages of the proposed site at Columbia-Waterloo, Ill.

In a statement issued by Gov. Walker for inclusion in the formal record of public hearings held on Lambert's latest "master plan," the governor said:

"I want to reaffirm my support for the Columbia-Waterloo site for the new airport to serve the St. Louis area.

"There should be prompt federal approval of the Columbia-Waterloo site without further delay.

"The new airport is necessary to meet the transportation needs of the St. Louis metropolitan area — both the Missouri and the Illinois sides.

"It will contribute to the economic growth and development of the entire area.

"There have been enough studies. The time for action is now," Gov. Walker concluded.

Another statement presented for inclusion in the master plan hearing transcript was submitted Thursday by the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority.

It includes an assertion that the Lambert master plan lists adverse environmental impacts that are so serious they must be considered "severe and totally unacceptable."

The Authority's statement stresses the plan's Lambert projections indicating excessive "noise and air pollution, and disruption of wildlife refuge area involving endangered species."

Special education at new junior high

A resolution authorizing a tax levy of 4 cents per $100 assessed valuation for establishing special education classrooms or remodeling school buildings for special education classes was approved for the 1976-77 school year by the Madison Board of Education Thursday night.

The special tax has been levied annually for the three previous years and may be applied annually for the next three years.

The fund now has a balance of $70,000 from the previous tax levies. The funds may not be spent for any purpose other than special education facilities.

Superintendent of Schools John Paley said that when the grant for a new middle school (Junior High School) is received, there may be sufficient money to add special education facilities to it.

It was noted that it is not known when the district will receive the grant for the proposed new school, but they have a guarantee that state funds will be available pursuant

Watson is found dead at tracks

Chester Watson, 63, of 4812 Warnock Ave., a conductor in the transportation division of the blast furnace department at Granite City Steel was pronounced dead at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:15 p.m. Sunday following an incident at the blast furnace plant which was under investigation today.

A company spokesman said an investigation is being made to determine the cause of death.

Mr. Watson was found without signs of life along tracks in the plant.

The possibility that Mr. Watson was injured fatally while riding the side of a hopper car was reported when he first was found. Plant officials said, however, that the cause of death has not yet been determined.

Mr. Watson had been employed at Granite City Steel since 1956 and in the company's transportation department (railroad division) since 1968.

He is survived by a son who lives in Arizona.

Funeral services are pending at the Davis Funeral Home.

Bruer drowns

An employee of a St. Louis barge line, who police identified as Vernon C. Bruer, 38, of the 2400 block of Edison Avenue, was pronounced dead shortly before 3 p.m. Saturday, after his body was recovered from the Mississippi River, near Monsanto Chemical Corp.'s plant at Sauget, Ill.

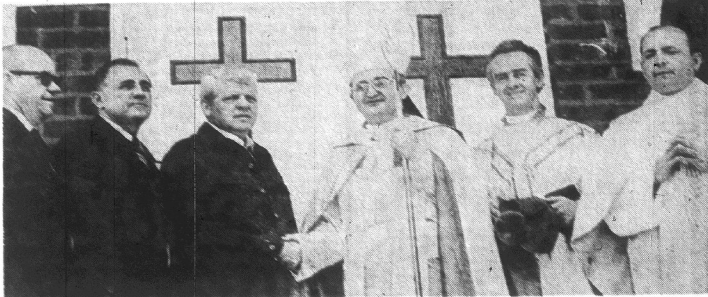

A spokesman for Eagle Marine Industries, 112 N. 4th St., St. Louis, said Mr. Bruer was working on a fleet of barges, tied about 200 feet from the Illinois shoreline, when the accident occurred.

John Maynard of Belleville, a barge line employee, told police he heard a splash near the center section of the barge fleet, ran toward the area and saw a man in the water wearing a life jacket. His face and chest were above the water, Maynard reported.

The fleet was six barges in length and five wide.

Mr. Bruer was stripping rigging from a barge at the time of the mishap and had been at work about six hours, the company spokesman noted. He had been employed by Eagle Marine Industries for two days, but had worked for the same firm on other occasions within the past month. He was a member of the Seafarer's Union.

Additional details were unavailable today.

Hit-run auto kills man

Leander W. Sumner Jr., 21, of Lot 22, Holiday Mobile Home Park, was injured fatally at 2:30 a.m. Saturday when struck by a hit and run driver and then by another car on State Aid Route 35 near his home.

Mr. Sumner died at 9:15 a.m. at Firmin Desloge Hospital where he was transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Madison County sheriff's deputies said Sumner apparently was crossing State Aid

Route 35, three-tenths of a mile east of the entrance to the mobile home court when first struck by a hit and run driver.

Robert W. Hall, 22, St. Louis, driving behind the hit-run car, said he did not see Mr. Sumner lying in the road because of headlights from oncoming traffic, and his car struck the victim again. Hall stopped his car when he realized he had hit something and summoned deputies. The victim was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, then transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

He was living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leander William (Sylvia) Sumner Sr. They moved to the Granite City area in October of 1974.

In addition to his parents he is survived by one brother.

Richard Sumner of Granite City, three sisters, Mrs. Rosalind Miller of Granite City, Mrs. Donald (Sandy) Ralowski of Belleville and Mrs. Barbara Lee Leslie of Webster Groves, Mo., and his grandfather Lee Sumner of Fairview Heights.

Funeral arrangements are listed in the obituary column.

Crash victim serious

John McGrath, 23, of 2037 Dewey Ave., was injured seriously when he was run over by a car near the low water dam at 3:55 a.m. Friday.

McGrath was unable to talk to Madison County sheriff's deputies, due to his condition. Friends said they saw a red Camaro automobile speed from the area where McGrath was injured.

The friends drove him to the hospital where he was examined for injuries to his head, chest and abdomen. He had fire marks to his chest and his head was bleeding internally, it was reported. His liver also was believed crushed.

He was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, where he was admitted in critical condition.

Friends who brought McGrath to the hospital were

Steel coil topples

A 42,000 pound coil of heavy gauge steel snapped its chains on a tractor-trailer and spilled out into the center of Madison Avenue near 15th street.

Charles W. Casey, Schaumburg, Ill., the driver of the tractor-trailer, said the vehicle was northbound on Madison Avenue and as he turned through the curve he saw the steel on the trailer begin to move.

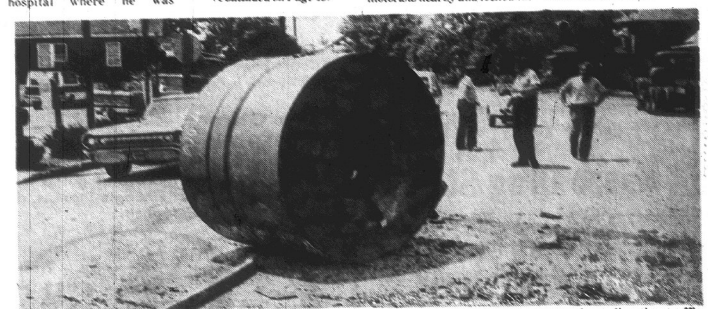

He said he sounded the truck's air horn as a warning to motorists nearby and locked the brakes on the truck.

The shifting of the steel caused the truck's frame to break and the steel rolled out, breaking a portion of a partial retaining wall on the trailer.

The impact as the 21-ton roll struck the pavement caused considerable damage to the roadway.

Conventional tow trucks could not lift the heavy coil, so heavy equipment had to be called from Wilbur Waggoner Excavating Co. of Madison to lead the coil onto another trailer.

UNUSUAL MISHAP in the 1500 block of Madison Avenue at noon Thursday as a large steel coil, weighing 42,000 pounds, broke loose in a tractor-trailer, smashed through the side wall of the trailer and came to rest in the middle of the street. Among those directing traffic around the coil are Patrolman Raymond Ridge and Patrolman Joe Kastelic, northeast coil.

DAVID G. BROWN, assistant professor of pharmacology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has been named junior research scholar for 1975.

David G. Brown named SIUE research scholar

David G. Brown, assistant professor of pharmacology at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Dental Medicine, has been named SIUE Junior University Research Scholar for 1975.

His research project, "Salivary Glands, Polymers and Chemotherapy," was chosen from a group of nine proposals submitted to the junior category of the competition.

The award decision was made by an all-university panel of judges upon the recommendations of the research and projects review committees and external reviewers for Federal agencies and private foundations. The panel of judges was appointed by the deans of SIUE schools.

As a biochemist specializing in pharmacology, Prof. Brown has received several grants over the past few years for his work on the control of deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) synthesis, growth and replication in mammalian cells. According to Brown, the American Cancer Society has been interested in and funded some of his research because "the studies could give insight into what causes the proliferation of cells in cancer tissue."

The project funded by the SIUE award involves a study of chemically induced DNA synthesis and growth of cells in the salivary glands of rodents. Brown said this "in vivo" growth system will be analyzed from two points of view: "one is basic molecular biology and the other is human disease in salivary glands."

According to the researcher, "It appears that polyanine levels increase as growth increases in cells. Measure of polyanine levels in a comparison between tissues might serve as a useful diagnostic indicator for abnormal growth or development. The development of some kind of routine, simple diagnostic test might lead to a possible early detection technique for some kinds of cancerous growth."

The other aspect of the study is to determine something of the relation between growth, polyanine levels and DNA synthesis in tissues, Prof. Brown said.

Smith profits in upturn

A. O. Smith Corp. has recovered from an unprofitable first quarter and expects to earn between $1,500,000, or $1,750,000, or from 30 to 35 cents per share, for the quarter ending June 30, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, has announced.

However, Smith pointed out that the second quarter of 1975 will not be as profitable as the same quarter a year ago when the company earned $2,428,000, or 50 cents per share. A. O. Smith operates a Granite City auto frames plant.

This is because of recession-caused weakness in several of the company's major markets, particularly agriculture, automotive and construction. However, because the company anticipated a lengthy period of poor business conditions, it began cost reduction programs in late 1974 which contributed importantly to the profitable results for the second quarter, Smith said.

While dollar sales in the second quarter will be about $150,000,000, unit sales generally are down in most product lines compared with a year ago when sales were $151,625,000.

For the six months, Smith said he expects earnings to be between $1,150,000 and $1,400,000, or from 23 to 28 cents per share, on sales of approximately $283,000,000, compared with $1,548,000, or 32 cents per share, with sales of $286,325,000 in the first half of 1974.

In looking at the second quarter, Smith said that two of the company's operating units serving the petroleum market, and another which sells much of its production for replacement purposes, will turn in higher sales and profits than a year ago.

The Reinforced Plastics division of A. O. Smith-Inland Inc., an affiliate, which manufactures fiber glass reinforced plastic pipe, the Meter Systems division, a maker of petroleum metering systems, and the Consumer Products division, one of the nation's largest manufacturers of water heaters, all expect better results in the second quarter of 1975 than a year ago, Smith said.

The generally unstable economic conditions which have adversely affected the livestock and dairy farmer over the past 12 months are causing sales and profits to decline at A. O. Smith Harvester Products, Inc., a subsidiary.

Farmers, hurt by a poor 1974 harvest, increasing costs, lower prices for livestock and dairy products, high interest rates and confused about federal government farm planning, have been reluctant to make major capital improvements, causing the subsidiary's first major prolonged sales decline.

The lower sales, plus the last of the start-up costs at Harvester Products' new 400,000 square foot manufacturing plant in Dakota, Ill., which began production in the second quarter, will cause the subsidiary to operate at a loss for the period.

While dollar sales in the company's automotive division quarter last year, unit volume and profits will be down modestly from a year ago. Two operating units serving the new construction market are being hurt by the low level of activity in housing and commercial buildings.

Former college director gets 2 years in income tax case

Robert F. Jacob, Edwardsville, was sentenced last week to two years in prison to be followed by five years probation by Judge James Foreman in U. S. District Court at East St. Louis. Jacob also was ordered to pay all taxes, penalties and interest for the year 1972 plus costs of prosecution.

The former director of special programs at State Community College, East St. Louis, entered a plea of guilty March 28, to the charge of willfully subscribing a false income tax return for the year 1972, and to the charge of converting to his own use money in excess of $10,000, a part of the proceeds of a $19,127 check payable to Metro-East Vocational Technical Training (Housing) Program, which came into his possession as director of special programs at State Community College. These charges were dismissed.

Virgil W. Klaus dies

Virgil W. Klaus, 56, of Highland, formerly of Granite City, died Thursday at St. John's Mercy Hospital, St. Louis.

He operated the Highland

Sales of electric motors used in air conditioning and refrigeration are off substantially from a year ago, although performance approximates the 1974 period because of "post reduction" effect.

While sales of Armor Elevator Co. are about level with a year ago, profits are being hurt by project delays and generally higher costs throughout the construction business.

Smith also pointed out that interest costs during the second quarter would be much higher than a year ago, primarily because of a higher level of short-term debt. A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of electric motors, meter systems, auto and truck frames, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heater equipment, elevators and other products.

Community College. Henry Schwartz, U. S. attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois, announced that Jacob also had been indicted on four additional charges including two counts of willfully subscribing false income tax returns for the year 1970 and 1971, one count for knowingly making a false statement before the United States Grand Jury while under oath, and one count for willfully purloining and converting to his own use money in excess of $10,000, a part of the proceeds of a $19,127 check payable to Metro-East Vocational Technical Training (Housing) Program, which came into his possession as director of special programs at State Community College. These charges were dismissed.

Data Processing Co., moving to Highland from Granite City in 1964. He performed tax and accounting work most of his life.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elza May Klaus, and one daughter, Mrs. Clarence (Susan) White, both of Highland; his mother, Mrs. Edwin (Alma) Klaus of Highland and three grandchildren.

Services were scheduled today at 1:30 p.m. in the Evangelical United Church of Christ, Highland. Burial was in the Highland City Cemetery.

Buying a dresser? 'Knock on wood!'

By BARB MAYER

Before buying a new bedroom dresser or armoire, be sure to "knock on wood." That's one way to find out how solid wood furniture is, and there are a lot of other ways, according to Jan Brown, interior designer and author of "Buy It Right." Brown, who led a consumer service unit to Jan Brown, Inc. in Aurora, explained that well-made wood furniture shouldn't sound hollow or move when you tap it. She recommends a careful inspection of wood pieces in the store before buying, with attention to the following:

— The finish should be clear, not muddy or opaque. The natural character of the wood should be accentuated, not covered. Because many stores use dramatic lighting, signs of a poor finish are streaks, drips, orange and yellow stains, and uneven crevices around molding.

— Drawers in dressers or armoires should slide in and out easily and should be smooth and well-fitted. The front of a drawer should never be nailed.

— The inside of drawers should be sealed and waxed, with no splinters or rough edges. Quality furniture has dust panels separating drawers.

— Tables should be solid, heavy and well-balanced. Place your palms on the table and try to rock it — it shouldn't wobble. Feel under the table edge for rough edges — usually the store can correct this by sanding. Table leaves should blend in color and grain with the rest of the table.

— Chairs should have backs that are all one piece, resin or plastic, and brought it home, it needs special care. Brown emphasized, it's not a good idea to overwash, since wood needs to breathe. And dusting should be done with a cleaning agent rather than a dry rag.

Brown doesn't recommend using glass tops on wood furniture because moisture tends to build up between the glass and the wood. And keep in mind that the sun bleaches and dries up wood.

Complaints about wood and upholstered furniture should be registered first with the retailer store and then with the manufacturer, she suggested.

If both are unable to resolve the complaint, consumers have another outlet — the Furniture Industry Consumer Advisory Panel (FICAP) created two years ago by the Southern Furniture Manufacturers Association.

FICAP looks into consumer complaints and attempts to resolve them by acting as a liaison group between consumers and the furniture industry.

Vision society warns of fireworks dangers

As the Independence Day holidays approach, the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness has issued a warning that all fireworks are dangerous, even the smallest firecracker and the seemingly harmless sparkler.

"We do not want to spoil the traditional patriotic fun of the Fourth," says Virginia S. Boyce, Executive Director of the sight conservation organization, "but we strongly urge that use of all fireworks be confined to licensed public displays.

"Every year, the Society receives far too many reports of eye injuries from the use of fireworks, even in states where they have been outlawed. Many of the injured are children.

"The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, since 1973 the Federal agency responsible for consumer safety, has not yet come up with what the Society and allied organizations concerned with personal safety consider to be effective regulations," says Mrs. Boyce. "However, we can't help but believe that the Commission is working toward improved controls."

Although the larger "Class B" fireworks have been federally banned for some time, the more common "Class C" devices are responsible for a tremendous number of injuries, an estimated 3,000 during last year's holiday season. Among the fireworks identified as "Class C" are small firecrackers, sparklers, fountains, Roman candles and similar items.

Because all pyrotechnic devices are inherently dangerous, there is no truly safe way to use them, Mrs. Boyce points out.

The Society makes a special plea to parents to see that their children are not permitted to use fireworks of any kind, and to keep their children away from anyone who does. Frequently, the innocent bystander gets hurt. It is hard for children to recognize the danger in anything they see as "fun," so it is up to adults to take the responsibility.

"Celebrate the Fourth," the Society says, "but celebrate it safely. Vision is priceless... don't take needless chances with it."

—$1.35—

Business Women hear programs outlined

An increased range of service, projects and membership expansion was proposed by newly appointed committee chairmen at the Granite City Business and Professional Women's first meeting of the 1975-76 club year.

The dinner session at Charlie's Restaurant was conducted by the new club of 100 members under the direction of Mrs. Rosemary Basden, BPW president. The entire evening focused on program planning for 1975-76.

Mrs. Basden introduced her new standing committee chairmen, with the appointees summarizing their plans for the year.

The executive officers and chairmen wore red, white and blue banners, the colors chosen by the Business Women for the simultaneous International Women's Year and the Bicentennial Year.

The patriotic color scheme will be reflected in all dinner table appointments and at events requiring other decorations for the next 12 months, Mrs. Basden explained.

Mrs. Barbara Hodges, membership chairman, asked each BPW member to invite a colleague or friend to the July 16 meeting when the membership "kickoff" dinner is planned.

Based around the theme — "Safari for Membership" — the July dinner will be a covered dish affair in the Red Room at the Travelodge, 1200 Nineteenth St., Mrs. Hodges explained. Members were asked to dress informally and provide an "international" food dish for the meal.

Miss Annelle Smith, immediate past president, will present a program of slides, detailing her recent journey to East Africa and her attendance at the Congress of Business and Professional Women of the Americas convention in Mexico City.

Members also were asked to furnish white elephant items for a silent auction. Those unable to provide a food item will be asked to donate $2 each, while those furnishing a dish will pay $1.25. The latter amount also will apply to guests, Mrs. Hodges said.

Any working woman in the Quad-City area is invited to attend the July 16 dinner and may contact Mrs. Ruth Walk, reservation chairman, at 797-0109.

Other plans for the coming year were reviewed by Mrs. Lillian Marzluft, style show chairman, who said the event will take place during "Business Women's Week" in October. Assisting her will be Mrs. Hecky Slate and Mrs. Lois Wetton.

Mrs. Valerie Stevens, Foundation chairman discussed the Career Advancement Scholarship series and asked members to apply for a grant available through the Verna

Lengel awards program.

A report from Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher, legislation chairman, informed the group that Chris Shields will serve as her co-chairman. A course in practical politics is being planned and efforts to get ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment will be continued by the committee, she said.

Mrs. Shirley Adams, public relations chairman, displayed a certificate of award to the club from KETC, the Channel 9 Public Broadcasting station in St. Louis.

The award recognized participation in a television campaign in which pledges to the educational station's program amounting to over $4,000, were achieved by five club members.

Mrs. Adams said Mrs. Florence Moore will serve as newspaper liaison officer. Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, program planning chairman, will compile the club's scrapbook and Mrs. Celeste Puryear will act as bulletin editor.

Mrs. LaVelle Stephens, Young Careerist chairman, described aspects of the program and announced Mrs. Mary Batson as her co-chairman.

Phase III of the BPW's Personal Development Program will be initiated this year. Mrs. Cleve Whitaker, chairman, reported, with speaker classes to start in the fall.

A "Caravan for Catherine," honoring Mrs. Catherine Burton of Collinsville, Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's president, is planned in October. Mrs. Pauline Weir, BPW Week chairman announced.

Area clubs will be asked to join the caravan, escorting the state president to a point midway to Springfield on the initial part of her state tour.

Approval was given to enter a vehicle in the July 10 Shrine's parade as a community affairs project under the supervision of Mrs. Gladys Newman, chairman.

Other chairmen reporting at the dinner were Mrs. Genevieve Haddix, finance, Mrs. Ruth Buer, International Women's Year; Mrs. Betty Roberson, Past President's Night; Mrs. Helene Buschhoff, International Week; Mrs. Delores Klesh, Prayer Breakfast; Mrs. Ruth Walk, Christmas party and permanent reservations chairman, and Mrs. Sylvia Wright, president-elect and yearbook chairman.

Mrs. Walk was nominated by the club as a candidate for the position of District 14 secretary.

Mrs. Basden reported Mrs. Batson served as installing officer for the Fairview-Edgemont BPW Club and that the Granite City club was represented at installations of all area clubs with exception of Alton.

A summer training session is planned at the Elm Street Presbyterian Church, Alton, on June 30, with standing committee chairmen in District 14 invited to attend.

About 18 Granite City club members indicated they would attend the leadership conference held yesterday at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

New members whose applications were approved at the dinner meeting, include Betty Nugent, Rosalie Portell, Valerie Evenden and Eileen Taylor.

Mrs. Ruth Canner, chaplain, led the club collect and the pledge to the flag was given by Mrs. Ann Giese, Americanism chairman.

Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, program planning chairwoman, and Mrs. Maude Chilton, program chairman, were in charge of the meeting.

GCS Women's Association installs

A candlelight installation ceremony was held for incoming officers of the Granite City Steel Women's Association held last week in the cafeteria at Granite City Steel's general office building.

Installed for 1975-76 were: Jerry Dublar, president; Shirley Schwendenmann, vice-president; Juanita Stalghar, recording secretary; Genevieve May, corresponding secretary; and Glenda Moore, treasurer.

Mrs. Dorothy Rushing, a past president, conducted the installation ceremony. About 30 attended the dinner meeting. Camping and parks was the theme and the guest speaker was Jim Keet, a park ranger, who discussed parks and recreational facilities available to the public in the St. Louis County area.

Table centerpieces were camping scenes and a large planter was the focal point on the head table. Key chains were distributed as favors.

Mrs. Schwendenmann gave the invocation and Mrs. Peggy Solberger, the retiring president, was in charge of the business session.

Other outgoing officers are Joyce Hayes, Frieda Riecken, Nancy Cook and Mrs. Dublar, who served last year as vice-president.

Members of the program committee were Fannie Jennings, Nancy Cook, Marjorie Burkhardt, Virginia Buecker and Dorothy Rushing, chairman. The association will discontinue meetings during the summer months, resuming once again in September.

Sandra L. Leding bride of Thomas R. Rushing

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Sandra L. Leding and Thomas R. Rushing taking place on May 24 at St. Joseph Church in Libertyville, Ill., with the Rev. John J. Bresnahan officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Arnor Simpson of Libertyville and the late James R. Leding. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Rushing, reside at 2117 Manley Ave.

For her wedding, the bride chose to wear a gown made from her mother's wedding dress.

Designed with a lace bodice and candlelight silk over satin skirt, the gown was enhanced with matching train. Her bridal veil of French illusion was bordered in lace.

She carried a prayer book, which was held by her grandmother and mother on their wedding day, topped with white roses and streamers of Stephanotis.

Guests were served a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony and later in the evening a reception was held at the Cabriole Restaurant.

Maid of honor Miss Michelle Uhler and the bridesmaids, Martha and Barbara Leding, sisters of the bride, Mary Ellen Ross, Barbara Crowe and Debbie Apat, were identical gowns.

Their full-length dresses were created in pink knit and complemented with short matching jackets. Each attendant held an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue baby's breath.

Bruce Buttery served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Mark Rigby, Gary Rushing, a brother of the groom, Tim Moore, Dan Ball, Mike Winston, David Chilicki and John Konkis.

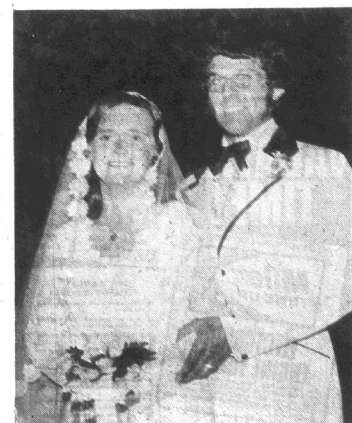

The bride graduated from Carmel High School, Mundell, Ill., and attended Bradley University. She is now a junior at the University of Illinois.

A 1970 graduate of Granite City High School, the groom received his B. S. degree in mathematics from Bradley University in 1974.

He is now enrolled at the University of Illinois, where he is completing work on his master's degree in industrial engineering.

The newly married couple is now residing in Champaign, Ill., following a honeymoon trip to Daytona Beach, Fla.

Local people attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Allen Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rushing and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rigby, all of Granite City, and Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas of Belleville.

Post 113 outpoints number two Canokia

Tri-Cities American Legion Post 113's baseball squad snapped quickly back from a 0-8 loss to Highland Wednesday to defeat Canokia, which is second in the league rankings, 2-0 at Canokia Thursday.

Coach Conrad "Babe" Champion commented, "It was a wonderful boost to us and one that was well deserved by all the players."

Elsewhere in the American Legion League, the Glen Carbon Steeler Post 435 lost to Fairview Heights 5-3, and Venice-Madison Post 307 was unable to muster enough players and had to forfeit their game to Highland.

Post 113's victory Thursday was credited to an excellent third inning during which both runs were made. Paul Muehlhoubler and Dave Dombek followed with a two-bagger to drive Muehlhoubler in.

John Pritchard then bunted and reached first, advancing Dombek to third. Mark Greenwald then singled to drive Dombek across the plate.

Greenwald had an excellent night, hitting each of his three times at bat, including one home run.

Others reaching base were Tom Henrich and pitcher Kirk Champion.

Kirk Champion went the distance, allowing hits only in the second and seventh innings. "No one even got to third base, which is quite an achievement," his coach later commented. Champion struck out six batters.

Rally by Vans tops Mercer team 12-10

The East Alton baseball Vans yesterday rallied behind relief pitcher Larry Johnson in the sixth inning to score five runs and overcome a 9-7 Mercer lead. As a result, the local Illinois Inter-City League squad lost 12-10 in a contest at East Alton.

Johnson relieved starter Ron Middleton on the mound.

The Vans took a 3-0 lead in the first inning on a three-run homer by Joe Huff before Mercer's Bill Campbell narrowed the margin with a solo home run the second.

Mercer deadlocked the contest at 3-3 in the third inning on hits by Campbell, Bob Scott and losing pitcher Vic Renack.

But the Vans scored in their half of the frame and added two more in the fourth for a 6-3 lead.

The Mercer nine tied the game again in the fifth with three runs on hits by Renack, Campbell, Scott and Corey, and then gained a 9-7 lead in the sixth on hits by Campbell and Scott and a homer by Corey.

The Vans broke open the contest with their five tallies in the seventh. Mercer added a run in the eighth on a triple by Campbell and a single by Scott.

In other league contests yesterday, Panama, led by a two-run homer by Mike Laly, defeated Fairfax 7-3 and Highland-Pierced downed Troy 7-5.

Change is proposed in Class A baseball season

A plan to change season dates of Class A high school baseball received general approval at the Thursday evening meeting of the Madison Board of Education.

A copy of a letter written by William C. Mize, president of the Okaw Valley Conference and sent to Harry Fitzgibbon, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association, was read by Superintendent John Palchick to the board.

The letter stated that because of the conference, it has been instructed to communicate to you and the board of directors our serious concern with existing regulations and to again strongly encourage your consideration and initiation of a summer baseball tournament series.

"Specifically, we would advocate the elimination of beginning season dates, and the initiation of a regional baseball tournament beginning the Monday after July 4 and continuing on through sectional and state tournament phases.

"With a summer tournament, one could anticipate most schools going to a summer conference schedule and baseball would then be played in weather suitable for it."

"The most obvious deterrent to a summer tournament and subsequent summer schedules would be the lobbying influence of the Babe Ruth League and American Legion baseball programs. These programs were initiated originally because the IHSA and schools did not fulfill the need for summer activities for youth."

"I suspect many American Legions would be happy and relieved to be free of the financial burden of their baseball programs. Perhaps its time we assume some responsibility for these summer activities."

"I have further been instructed to write all Class A baseball-playing schools to seek their concurrence and support of this Okaw Conference proposal."

Braves divide two baseball twinbills

The Granite City Braves of the Central Illinois Traveling Baseball League, split a pair of doubleheaders during the weekend, losing 7-4 and then blanking the hosts 16-0 at Greenville Thursday.

Yesterday at Collinsville, the Braves lost 4-3 and shut out the hosts 3-0 in the second contest.

The Braves now, with a 13-3 record and 9 1/2 in league play, matched Greenville's initial run in the first inning before the hosts took a 2-1 lead in the third.

The local squad tied the game at 2-2 in the fourth when Ed Prazma tripled and losing pitcher Rich Fancher singled.

A two-run sixth inning gave Granite City a 4-2 lead as Jim Jackson reached base on an error, stole second and scored on John Lakin's double.

Mike Clark also doubled. Victory slipped through the Braves' fingers in the sixth as the host club scored five runs and held on for the win.

In the second game, the Braves routed their Greenville hurlers while John Slay tossed a one-hitter.

The Braves broke on top in the third as Steve Boston singled and scored on Randy Smith's double.

Paul Evans doubled, Lakin singled and Jackson cleared the bases with a smash triple for a 4-0 lead.

Taking advantage of six walks, five errors and three wild pitches while collecting five hits in the fourth, the Braves exploded with 12 runs. Every player in the lineup scored, with Clark getting two hits, Lakin and Prazma each clouting doubles and Jackson singling.

At Collinsville, the local squad jumped to a 2-0 first-inning lead when Clark walked, Smith singled and both scored on Lakin's double.

Jim Cedor singled and rounded the bases on Mike Hankins' hit in the second for a 3-0 Braves lead.

Collinsville tied the game in the sixth on three errors, and got the winning run later in the same frame on a homer.

In the second contest, Prazma singled and scored on an error in the second inning. The Braves ran the score to 3-0 in the sixth as Dan Stanton was hit by a pitch and Tom Manogian hit a towering homer into the trees over leftfield fence.

Lakin, now with a 3-0 record, fanned six, walked none and allowed only an infield single in the fourth.

The Braves take a week of rest before meeting Belleville East at 7:30 p.m. next Sunday in a league doubleheader at Belleville.

Gittemeier, Baily win

Two defending track champions posted feature race victories during the auto racing program Saturday evening at Tri-City Speedway — Missouri's Len Gittemeier in the late model stock car division and Granite City's Rod Bailey in the sportsman class.

Gittemeier took out from his busy U. S. Auto Club national circuit schedule to snap Russ Wallace's feature event winning string at five straight. Bailey posted his first feature win of the season. Dueling wheel-to-wheel with St. Louisian Dean Aerns on the last lap of the 15-lap sportsman race, Bailey passed his competitor inches from the checkered flag.

He received an estimated $12,000 bonus and is to depart tomorrow for St. Petersburg, Fla.

Fairview opened with three runs in the first inning and

GC man beaten, robbed

James Voght, 34, of 1259 Nineteenth St., was severely beaten and robbed at 2 a.m. Friday and was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Voght said he was at an area tavern and when he left he said goodbye to someone and walked out. He told police that was the last thing he remembered until he regained consciousness beside his car on Oldenburg Road near the drainage canal levee.

He said his wallet and his car keys were stolen. His money was in his front pocket and was not taken.

He was taken to the hospital suffering contusions above both eyes and cuts to the back of his head and under his right eye.

Real estate tax bills this week

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Granite City taxpayers have been billed for $11,063,944 in personal and real estate taxes payable during this summer's collection period. City Treasurer Paul Rutledge reported today.

The total billing is an increase of $704,353 over the $10,359,591 billed for collection in 1974. Real estate tax bills prepared by the office of County Treasurer George Musso were delivered to Rutledge Friday, clearing the way for full-scale tax collections beginning late this week.

Rutledge said he expects to mail the bills Wednesday and Thursday and that Granite City may begin paying real estate taxes any time after receiving their bills. Payment of real estate tax bills may be made to Rutledge's office in the City Hall, or at any one of the three Granite City banks.

Personal property tax bills were sent out June 7 and are in the process of collection. Personal property tax bills are payable only at the treasurer's office.

Rutledge said personal property taxes may be paid to July 7 when a 1 per cent penalty will become effective on unpaid bills and the books will be returned to the county treasurer's office.

Real estate tax collections, he said, will continue through Aug. 1, with the first 1 per cent penalty becoming effective on Aug. 2. The real estate tax books will be returned to the county on Aug. 2, the same day of the first penalty is invoked.

Through an error in the bill preparation by the county, the bills may create some confusion for taxpayers who will note that the total tax is repeated twice on first and second installment stubs of the new-type tax bills, Musso's office explained.

To clarify it, the county treasurer's office issued a statement that said:

"Due to an error on the tax statement, the total tax figure on the first and second installments is incorrect."

"The amount to be paid should be one-half the amount shown (in the installment stubs)."

"The correct figure is shown in the upper left-hand corner of the tax statement on the line marked 'first and second half tax.'"

Local tax collections are being made this year by the town collectors of the four townships of the Quad-Cities—

Crash victim

John Greene, 3129 Kirkpatrick Homes, John Ashburn, 208 Warsaw Lane, Mitchell, and Robert Reisinger, Sorrento.

They told sheriff's deputies the four had driven to the riverfront near the low water dam and Old Chain of Rocks Road on Chouteau Island and had been drinking near the water.

They reported McGrath became angry and said he felt his friends were "riding him too much," meaning he did not like they way they were talking to him. He walked away from them, they said.

A short time later, they were ready to leave in Greene's auto and they called for McGrath, who did not answer, they said.

Ashburn remained where they had been while the others drove around the area searching for McGrath, they said. They said they saw the red Camaro driving away at a high rate of speed and a few moments later they found McGrath on the ground bleeding, deputies were told.

They said they put McGrath in Greene's auto and returned to where Ashburn was waiting. They then drove to the hospital, they said.

Deputies are investigating circumstances surrounding the incident.

Madison will start teacher re-training

By WALTER STRANGE

Press-Record Staff Writer
The Madison School district in co-operation with Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will begin July 1 a program to upgrade teaching methods in the Madison elementary schools under a $250,000 grant from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Donald Baden, Ph.D., David Baer, Ph.D., and James Corner, Ph.D., of the SUE staff are working with Porter Cawly, principal of Harris School, who will serve as local education director and coordinator with the SUE staff, and Wade James, assistant superintendent of schools, who will coordinate the program with the local school board.

The purpose of the program, called "Teacher Corps," is to give special and individual help to students with learning problems, of any type, and to improve and retrain teachers in more effective ways of teaching various subjects.

"We will make a detailed needs assessment in July and August and then gear the program to the areas where there is the most need," Cawly said.

"We know that the areas of reading and mathematics are weak, but we are going to look into other areas of instruction as well."

The two-year program will, in effect, set up our four elementary schools as experimental teaching centers, and when we see a child is not benefiting from the program we will adapt to meet the individual child's needs," he added.

"All of us involved in the program feel the elementary students will be greatly helped with their learning skills."

During the month of July, several key staff members will take special training at the University of Richmond, Va., and HEW offices in Washington D.C.

Mrs. Mary Evans and Charles Steptoe, both teachers, will coordinate the work of four intern teachers and other teachers involved in the program.

Mrs. Donna Woodard will be the parent director and will work with parents and citizens to get input from them into the program.

Two suspected sewer breaks

Two more suspected sanitary sewer breaks in the Nameoki area developed during the weekend, Street Superintendent Lionel Portell reported today.

Portell said one apparent break has occurred on Frann Avenue between Lynch and Waterman avenues, about 50 feet north of Waterman.

The other, he said, is located over the sanitary line on Faith Avenue between Warren Avenue and Fortune Drive.

Both apparent breaks are indicated by sunken areas in the streets over the lines, Portell said.

Expand free lunch program

Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission is offering a free summer lunch service through playgrounds, recreation programs and work programs of varying kinds.

Although emphasis is on serving children of a disadvantaged family, it does not exclude the service to children simply because their parents can afford the lunch.

The areas of service, however, must be those where children of disadvantaged families would be involved. It will not be necessary to check income guidelines or ask parents to sign waivers.

This is a pilot program that expands the lunch service EOC is already providing to 800 children in Madison County. Funding is provided by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The Madison County Manpower Office also is assisting by furnishing cooks, helpers through the CETA program.

Madison County EOC's comprehensive insurance program covers any securities related to the lunch program. Further information may be obtained from Leo Hicks at 466-7901.

River Fest to host senior citizens

Special arrangements to host senior citizens at the Mississippi River Festival, June 30-Aug. 20, have been announced by Vicky Holt, MRF concert manager.

Mrs. Holt explained that a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts is making possible a series of audience development programs designed to serve the cultural needs of the community while increasing attendance at the Festival on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"Senior Citizens Night" will be a special feature of "A Nostalgic Night of Glenn Miller Music," scheduled Friday, July 18, Mrs. Holt said. Five hundred seats in the Festival tent have been reserved for senior citizens, and they will be sold at the reduced rate of $3 each. Lawn seats will be offered at half price ($1.50) to senior citizens.

Individual senior citizens may take advantage of a 20 per cent discount on tickets to any MRF performance, Mrs. Holt announced. The only requirement is personal identification that the ticket holder is a senior citizen, she said.

In addition, the members of any formally organized senior citizens group are invited to be guests, free of charge, at one of a selection of fine arts presentations during the summer, including Thursday and Saturday night symphony concerts, two dance concerts, films, and the four chamber music concerts. The offer is limited to groups who make advance reservations, and tent seating will be offered on an available basis, Mrs. Holt said. Transportation and food, as well as group seating arrangements, can be made for senior citizen groups, Mrs. Holt added. She said groups in Clayton and Litchfield already have registered for the complete food-tickets-transportation package at a total cost of $7 to $8 per person. A special slide show presentation about the Festival is available for showing to groups who are not familiar with the cultural opportunities provided by the Festival, the concert manager stated. Anyone who would like to schedule the show or who has questions about the special arrangements should call Mrs. Holt at 692-2300.

The number to call for ticket reservations is 692-2320. "Our planning for senior citizens is consistent with the leadership the University has taken in recent years in organizing activities for older persons," Mrs. Holt said. "The Festival feels it is very appropriate for us to help maintain the trend set by Senior Citizens Fairs and various special events in making fine arts and other cultural programs available to everyone."

State acts to regulate metric system conversion

Regional and district school superintendents soon will be receiving draft copies of proposed regulations implementing the State Board of Education's recent policy decision calling for the metric system to be taught as the official system of measurement in the Illinois public school system.

In a recent letter to the superintendents, State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin said the drafts would be sent "for your comments and suggestions before the regulations are made final" and filed with the secretary of state. He noted that the board's vote does not take effect until the regulations are filed.

The Illinois Office of Education will offer several services to help school districts implement the policy, Cronin's letter continues. He listed: (1) additional workshops on metric education for local educators; (2) consultant services to advise school districts on available curricula and materials; and (3) assistance with library materials and their purchase under Title II of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

The State Board adopted the metric policy at its April 24 meeting, calling for total conversion to instruction in the metric system to take place by 1980.

Elementary schools will be urged to adopt textbooks and materials that will help teachers prepare students for the metric system of measurement. They will have from two to five years to acquire the appropriate materials," Cronin's letter states.

"High schools are urged to adopt metric materials in mathematics, science, and vocational education on a more rapid timetable, before the sophomore and junior classes graduate."

Formal action relating to adoption of the metric system had been taken in 23 states as of January this year by state boards of education, state legislatures, or both, Cronin noted.

"Nearly every country in the world either uses the metric system or is in the process of converting to that system," he said. "Several agencies within the federal government are taking action to convert to the metric system, and most major industry either already use the metric system or is beginning to convert," he said.

"In short, even though no legislation has yet been passed at the national level, the United States is well on the way to 'going metric,'" Cronin said.

"Illinois owes it to its schoolchildren to see that they are ready when this happens."

Construction has been completed and a grand opening celebration will be held beginning June 26 for a second location of Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association at Route 159 and Cottonwood Station Road, Glen Carbon. A. H. Froemling, president of the association, announced this week.

The new 1,800-square foot office is located in the Cottonwood Station Office Center. There will be four teller stations, a drive-up window and ample free parking.

Carl P. Speckling has been named vice-president and manager of the office. Speckling has been employed by Madison County Federal from 1964 to 1972 and formerly was secretary-treasurer of the association. Most recently, he was associated with Prudential Savings & Loan in St. Louis. Mrs. Barbara Holshouser, Edwardsville, has been named assistant secretary of the association and also will work at the Glen Carbon office.

In addition to the new Glen Carbon location, construction currently is under way for a new home office for Madison County Federal at 3600 Nameoki Road. The 16,000 square foot building is scheduled for completion late this year.

Founded in 1923, the association has total assets exceeding $25 million and offers a full range of savings plans.

Upgrade service to veterans

Nine veterans employment representatives have been named by Secretary of Labor John T. Dunlop to service regional programs for the U. S. Department of Labor.

Dr. Dunlop said the new appointees will streamline activities to improve the Manpower Administration's efforts to seek out, interview, counsel, test, train, and place veterans in jobs.

Intensification of services to veterans, broadened by recent legislation and executive orders, resulted in the appointment of the new Regional Veterans' Employment Representatives (RVER), all veterans themselves, the labor secretary said.

The appointment of the nine regional executives will help the department carry out such new legislation as the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 and the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973.

These laws call for, among other things, the development of an intensive public communication effort, to produce jobs and job training opportunities for veterans.

Ongoing programs such as mandatory listing of jobs with the federal-state employment service by employers who are federal contractors, and increased responsibilities of the Manpower Administration are other broad activities which will be aided by the new RVERs.

They will coordinate veterans activities with federal agencies, labor unions, veterans organizations, employers and community organizations. The newly appointed RVERs include a Chicago-based Negro V which includes this area. The region is directed by Richard Mock.

Area farmers who are Federal Crop Insurance Corporation policyholders are reminded that the final date for reporting their acres of crops for insurance purposes is June 30.

Any crops that are reported after this date and suffered previous damage could result in no insurance coverage, explained Albert Dalton, Jr., director of the Contract Service Center, Indianapolis, Ind.

In the five states serviced out of the Indianapolis Center, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has approximately 22,000 spring crop contracts with farmers, protecting their crops against all natural hazards from planting until harvest.

Applications for the new Veterans Group Life Insurance Program are available at the SIUE Office of Veterans' Affairs as well as other VA offices, veterans' service organizations, and from the Office of Servicemen's Group Life Insurance, 212 Washington St., Newark, New Jersey, 07102.

The insurance program became effective last August. Veterans discharged four years before the insurance became effective only have until Aug. 1, 1975, to get the coverage. North said information on coverage and rates are available in the Office of Veterans' Affairs, SIUE.

Everything you buy at Kroger is guaranteed for your total satisfaction regardless of manufacturer. If you are not satisfied, Kroger will replace your item with the same brand or a comparable brand or refund your purchase price.

We also guarantee that we will do everything in our power to have ample supplies of all our advertised specials on our shelves when you shop for them. If, due to conditions beyond our control, we run out of an advertised special, we will substitute the same item in a comparable brand (when such an item is available) reflecting the same savings or, if you prefer, give you a "RAIN CHECK" which entitles you to the same after-tired special at the same special price any time within 30 days.

SENIOR CITIZENS SAVINGS PROGRAM

Kroger is pleased to be the first area food store to offer special savings and privileges to persons over 59 years of age living on fixed income. Get your Senior Citizen Card at Kroger. Sign Your "CLUB" Card, and keep it where you will have it for shopping. HERE'S HOW IT WORKS: 1. Your Kroger "CLUB" card entitles you to exemption from making the extra purchases required for our coupon specials. (For example, Maxwell House Coffee may be priced 79¢ lb. with coupon and $7.50 extra purchase. You do not have to make the $7.50 extra purchase.) You will need only the coupon, and if you don't take a newspaper, we'll have extra coupons available at the store. You may use your "CLUB" card once each week for coupon purchase exemptions. Our cashier will initiate the proper back block on the back of your "CLUB" card. 2. Bring your club card to your nearby Kroger Store the week of Oct. 19 and receive a new card and a mystery gift. Both husband and wife are eligible.

Meet your new bus —one of 240!

Unveiling ceremony and free demonstration rides!
Tuesday June 24, 12 noon
8th and Olive (Old Post Office) Downtown St. Louis
See below for display dates in your area.

What the new Bi-State buses mean to you:

Comfort Step aboard, grip the padded seat railings, relax in form-fitting, contour-seat comfort, stretch your legs in the extra room provided by the pedestal seats... while the air conditioning cools you—all of this on air-ride, double-shock absorbers for your riding, comfort. Ahh.

Safety Those padded railings, so comfortable to the touch also meet the latest government safety standards. At the entrance, there are double handrails, one at normal height and a lower one to aid the elderly and the handicapped... and the rear door has a safety edge that automatically opens the door if the edge touches a passenger. And, you are riding with a new non-skid brake system. It all adds up to safe, comfortable and dependable bus service for you.

Pollution Control Each new bus is equipped with the very latest environmental improvement package for cleaner air. Also, the buses have vertical exhaust pipes which discharge the diesel exhaust above the bus roofs after diluting it with fresh air—there is no visible smoke or odor.

Serving the Bi-State Region The 240 new buses will be scheduled throughout the Bi-State area to give as many people as possible a chance to ride them. And, for better on-time service, each of the new buses will be equipped with two-way radio for constant communication with the Bi-State radio control center for emergency re-routings and other information necessary to provide you with the best possible transit service!

This is just the beginning... there's more to come—additional new buses, new routes, added service on existing lines, more passenger shelters at bus stops, park-and-ride, a downtown mini-bus circulator system—just to mention a few. Our goal is to have the best bus service in the U.S. and we welcome your suggestions.

CD directors attend seminar

Granite City Civil Defense Director Victor H. Koenig and Ted Todder of Granite City, Madison County civil defense directors, attended an Advanced Directors Seminar in Springfield last week.

The three-day seminar was designed to give in-depth instruction in such areas as Hazardous Materials Incidents; Emergency Planning; Federal Disaster Planning; Civil Administration Programs; and Federal Defense Civil Preparedness Agency Programs to help local civil defense organizations.

The advanced seminar is the second stage in a state-sponsored program for local civil defense directors. The Initial Directors Seminar, the first stage, covers all phases of civil defense affecting local CD directors.

Instructors for the advance program are from the Illinois Civil Defense Agency in Springfield, a member of the Illinois State Police and a member of the federal Defense Civil Preparedness Agency's Region Four office in Battle Creek, Mich.

Ed Eric Jones, civil defense director for the state of Illinois, said that, "Civil defense is not a separate function, set apart from the normal responsibilities of government."

"On the contrary, civil preparedness operations occur whenever a local government responds to any extraordinary emergency such as a tornado, forest fire, hurricane, earthquake, flood or other natural disaster; or a major explosion or accident; or the release of radioactive materials or toxic chemicals; or an unusual peacetime emergency.

"Local governmental forces, such as fire and police, do provide the core, but many nongovernmental forces and groups must also be involved. Operations of these groups must be coordinated effectively by the civil defense director. This seminar will give him or her the training needed to do this," the state CD officer said.

Conservation area mostly under water

Editor's Note: This is one of a series on Illinois' state parks and memorials.

By JOAN MURARO

PEORIA — Dry land is in distinctly short supply, comparatively speaking, at Woodford County Conservation Area, located off Ill. Rt. 26 at the edge of a section of the Illinois River known as Upper Peoria Lake and Goose Lake.

Of the 2,896 acres in the area, 2,462 acres are covered by water, attesting to the presence of the many artesian wells in the region. Starting in 1977, the state began acquiring land in the region, which until then had been part of the proposed Partridge Drainage and Levee district. Since 1946, it has been maintained as a public hunting and fishing area.

Situated in bottomland, the conservation area supports large, picturesque stands of trees, chiefly silver maple, cottonwood, ash and willows. Fishermen need not be crowded for space at Woodford County Conservation Area—in addition to the Illinois River waters of Upper Peoria Lake and Goose Lake, there are 3,475 feet of man-made fishing channels where crappie fishing is excellent in late winter and early spring. Since the artesian wells keep the channels free from ice.

Fishermen will find boat docks, a public boat-launching ramp and state-owned rental sites available at the conservation area. Rental boats have only 10 horsepower motors, but there is no limitation on motor sizes for privately owned watercraft.

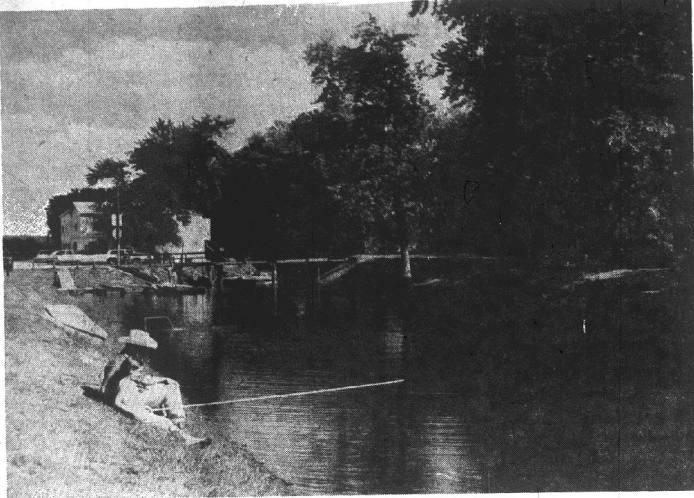

For picnicking, there are tables and drinking water with a small concession stand which provides candy and soft drinks.

Camping facilities are available for both tents and trailers. There is some electricity, and a sanitary dump station.

In the autumn, Woodford County Conservation Area offers blind sites for waterfowl hunting. Hunters should check with the site manager for specific hunting dates and times.

As in all state parks and other areas managed by the state Conservation Department, campers must register with the park ranger or site manager when camping, and any group with 25 or more persons must register in advance before entering the facility grounds.

The site manager for Woodford County Conservation Area can be reached care of the site, at R.R. 1, Low Point, Ill., or information can be obtained from the Division of Information and Education, State Conservation Department, in the State Office Building in Springfield, 62706.

LAZY DAY. A sunny bank, shade-dappled water, blue skies and puffy clouds—all ingredients of a quiet day at the Woodford County Conservation Area located along Illinois Route 26 between Lacon and Peoria.

Heights. In the background is the concession stand. The sandy area across the channel provides a comfortable site for a picnic.

Administrative seminar at SIUE during July

Nationally recognized authorities on university management will be among the leaders of a series of management development seminars during the month of July at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Members of the university administrative staff have been invited to apply for participation in the management development program. Applicants will be able to select the seminars they wish to attend, but each session will be limited to 25 participants. According to Warren Joseph, assistant vice-president for personnel administration, seminars will begin June 30 and are scheduled from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. each weekday during July.

Guest speakers will include Frank Newman, president of the University of Rhode Island and author of The Newman Report; Patricia Jacobowski-Spector, School of Education, and Nick DeMarco, School of Business, both of the University of Missouri, St. Louis.

Neil Berte, dean, New College, University of Alabama; Naria Perez, executive assistant to the chancellor, City University of New York; Frederick Balderson, chairman of the Center for Research in Management Science, and increased external demands for accountability, the university recognizes the importance of a management development program which hopefully will help us do an increasingly effective job with the resources available to us.

The program has been designed with an attempt to address itself to many of the critical concerns of university managers, must address.

The president added, "We have attempted to enlist the services of persons who have both a wealth of information on their particular topics and a stimulating style of presentation."

Seminar topics will cover a wide range of management studies, including personnel practices, interpersonal relations, organization theory, affirmative action, collective bargaining, budgeting processes, curriculum review and control, the civil service system, curricular innovations, identifying and allocating costs, and the politics of getting things done.

SIUE President John S. Rendelman said, "In a time of increasing budget constraint

New charges in bid rigging

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott has filed a triple damage antitrust suit in the United States District Court in Springfield, Ill., against three highway contracting firms accused of rigging bids in the construction of a secondary route in Douglas County.

Scott said that this suit is the second in a series of civil triple damage suits by his office in coordination with criminal prosecution by the U.S. Department of Justice of numerous highway contractors in the Federal Court in Springfield.

In each instance the State of Illinois has been the victim of the conspiracy and Scott's actions are designed to recover for the state not only the illegal overcharges paid because of the non-competitive bidding arrangements, but also additional sums in penalties.

The attorney general noted that the Court will determine the actual amount of damage resulting from the alleged conspiracy but it is anticipated that the eventual recovery to the state from this case, and the related cases soon to be filed, will be very substantial.

Scott's action against the contractors' firms represents another phase of an ongoing investigation into highway bidding practices in the state of Illinois.

Scott also complimented the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice on its efforts in this area and said that the case represents yet another instance of cooperation between the federal government and his office in the interests of effective law enforcement.

Names of defendants in the price-fixing suit are: Huckaba & Sons, Charleston, Ill.; General Paving Co., Champaign, Ill., and F. F. Mengel Co., Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.

On July 8, 1974, defendant Huckaba & Sons construction company pleaded guilty in Federal District Court in Springfield and eventually was fined the sum of $20,000. Defendants General Paving Co. and F. F. Mengel Co. were convicted by a Federal Court jury in Springfield on the same charges on July 16 of that same year. At this time, they are still awaiting sentencing.

Anthropological workshop

A workshop in the cultural and political development of Papua New Guinea will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Tuesday. The workshop, made possible by a grant from the U.S. Office of Education, is sponsored by the SIUE anthropology department and the graduate development studies project.

An afternoon session will open the workshop at 3 p.m., followed by an evening session at 7 p.m. Both sessions will be held in Room 1402 of the Peck classroom building.

Edwin A. and Susan M. Cook, a husband and wife team of anthropologists, will be the speakers. The Cooks have done extensive field work with the Managa people of the New Guinea Highlands. Cook, an associate professor in anthropology at SIUE-Carbondale, is co-editor of Southern Illinois Studies, a monograph series of the SIUE-C museum and associate editor of the American Anthropologist, a literary publication.

Mrs. Cook has had articles published and has presented papers dealing with Oceania and cultural change.

During the afternoon seminar, the Cooks will discuss the emergence of Papua New Guinea into independent status. The topic for the evening seminar will be the political development of the society from traditional tribal leadership to representation by elected councils and the House of Assembly.

There is no charge for admission. The public is invited to attend.
